

Security and Securitization: a historical perspective

26 and 27 November 2020

Day one:

Round table: “Security and securitization: are definitions relevant for historians?”

break

Simone Dossi, “Securitizing a new domain. Chinese views of cyberspace and national security”

David Burigana, "All mankind security and Space science diplomacy: an historical reappraisal?"

Benedetta Calandra, “The Obsession with Security. Classification and declassification of US documents about Latin America’s Dirty wars”

Andreas Lutsch, “Strategic Intelligence Analysis and Securitization – A Missing Dimension?”

Day two:

First panel

Arrigo Pallotti, “In/security in Southern Africa after the end of apartheid: the role of SADC”

Maria Stella Rognoni, “Peacekeeping in the Congo 1960-2020: A laboratory for the evolution of ‘security’ in theory and practice?”

Simone Paoli, "Securitization of migration? The role of the EU in a historical perspective"

Second panel

Elke Seefried, "Global Security: Social Democracy, sustainable development and the global challenges of the 1970s and 1980s

Laura Fasanaro, “Climate change in international politics and security notions. A historical perspective (1980s-2000s)”

Marilena Gala, “Negotiating a convention on the prohibition of nuclear weapons: a dilemma between state military power and human security?”