HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Football School Instructor My long experience as a football teacher (since 2013) has allowed me to hone my communication skills, work as part of a team and adapt effectively to different student needs. I am passionate about my role in fostering a passion for football and nurturing emerging talent, always striving to create a positive and exciting learning environment.

Traveller My passion for travelling on the road is a reflection of my innate curiosity. Through my many travels I have learnt to appreciate and respect different cultures, traditions and lifestyles. This awareness has enriched me personally and made me more open and understanding of cultural differences. Furthermore, I have developed adaptability and creative problem-solving skills, dealing with unexpected situations while travelling and finding ready and effective solutions.
